THE IRISH DELEGATION.

ARRIVAL IN NEW YORK OF O'BRIEN, REDMOND AND DEASY.

The Responsibility for the Belfast Riots Placed Upon Lord Randolph Churchill by Mr. O'Brien—A Talk on Home Rule—Michael Davitt's Speech at Chicago.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The steamship Servia, bearing Messrs. O'Brien, Redmond and Deasy, the Irish patriots, arrived Monday morning. The steamer was met by the reception committee, which consisted of Mayor Smith, of Philadelphia; Father Malone, of Williamsburg; Dr. O'Reilly, of St. Louis; A. J. Elliott, of Columbus, Ohio; Rev. George R. Betts, of Louisville; Hugh McCaffery, president of municipal council of Philadelphia; Dr. G. W. Parry, of Ohio; Rev. Father McKenna, of Hudson, Mass.; T. M. Brady, of Boston; M. D. Gallagher, of New York; Congress man P. A. Collins, of Boston, and Patrick Ford of New York.

In conversation with the reporters Messrs. O'Brien and Redmond spoke guardedly. The former condemned Lord Randolph Churchill as the direct cause of the Orange riots at Belfast and other places. "He told the Orangemen," said Mr. O'Brien, "that if they expected to be recognized by the English people, they must fight for it. His policy was backed up by Chamberlain, both in his public speeches and his letters. The Orangemen took their cue from their word and began rioting. Why, they might have been put down by two dozen policemen when the trouble began. But they would not do. They found themselves perfectly helpless. The authorities at Belfast were the higher classes of Orangemen and kept them back. Any active work by individual members of police was rewarded by black marks and often dismissal. Any attempt to arrest was followed by their being confined in the barracks. I do not think the mayor of Belfast acted unfairly, but other officials used their best endeavors to stir up the Orangemen."

"Do you think that there will be any general strike against paying rent?" asked a reporter.

"Do not," replied Mr. O'Brien. "Yes, there is a certain to be trouble, and that shortly. People last year endured their sufferings as best they could, hoping for relief. They expected relief from Government efforts in their behalf. That hope is at an end now for this year. It is impossible for them now to pay rent. There is a strong probability that a strike of three weeks duration will be a spontaneous combustion. They will refuse to pay the exorbitant rents. It will eventually result in coercion, and wholesale evictions will follow. It is impossible to govern Ireland with coercion. The people are driven to the wall now. A year or two will end the struggle forever. There will be a certain collapse of the government on the Irish question inside of a year."

"What do you think of Lord Churchill's plan of local self-government by means of county boards?" pursued the reporter.

"Oh, that is not possible," replied the delegate. "It does not go far enough. The question is developing fast."

"I should say," continued Mr. O'Brien, "that Mr. Gladstone's own mind is developing rapidly on the question involved. Less than his measure is impossible; more is certain."

BIG TIME IN CHICAGO.

Michael Davitt Addresses a Vast Audience—John Finerty.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—Michael Davitt was escorted to Ogden's grove on Saturday by a battalion of the Hibernian rifles and a company of the Chicago Guard. The speaking began between 6,000 and 7,000 people were assembled to participate in the annual Irish national demonstration. John F. Finerty was elected chairman. He delivered an address in which he favored the use of force in accomplishing Ireland's freedom. Mr. Finerty then introduced Michael Davitt who began by alluding to Mr. Finerty's speech, and characterized the spirit of resentment as quite natural. He said he had put aside the policy of revenge, and that all the leaders of Ireland had done the same thing. He continued:

"I would rather, by patient endurance, by suffering insult, by putting up with every insult, by putting up with every wrong, than by any life working for Irish national self-government, than gratify the natural promptings of the Irish race to revenge, or to avenge what Ireland has suffered in the past."

Mr. Davitt then spoke at length of Gladstone's last act of parliament and of the support given Gladstone's home rule scheme would have been much greater had he not handicapped it with the land-purchase bill.

Mr. Davitt's speech was in favor of peaceful agitation all through and took issue with Mr. Finerty's views, which were rather fiery. A noticeable fact was that Mr. Finerty was loudly applauded, while Mr. Davitt was not. A meeting was held at night at which Mr. Davitt predicted that in a few years he or some of his colleagues would come over to tell his American friends what the Irish parliament proposed to do.

Finerty Criticized.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The Journal says: Mr. Finerty's assault upon the Irish problem was a most remarkable rebuke from Michael Davitt at Chicago Saturday. Clearly, if the deliberate opinion of Mr. Finerty is that the people should revolt to open rebellion as a means of getting self-government he should sever his connection with a constitutional movement. No speaking about riots that can not be materialized out of even Mr. Finerty's speeches should be allowed for a moment in a movement that rests on moral force. The frank supporters of Mr. Farnell will be glad to see those who take refuge in "blood and thunder" talk retire from a position which is an injustice to the Irish parliamentary party.

DISSECTING TABLE IN COURT.

A Woman's Body Completely Cut Up by a Prisoner in Evidence.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—A highly sensational incident occurred during the trial in Brunswick on Saturday, of Mrs. Rodolei, a middle-aged woman of some notoriety in that city, and M. Masquiller, her lover, who are jointly charged with the murder of a young woman named Augusta Beckman, and disfigurement of her body by cutting it into pieces and scattering the fragments, wrapped in newspaper, in the streets of the city. Rodolei denied the crime, even to having treated the unfortunate woman, but Masquiller, becoming frightened, confessed that the girl had died while under the treatment of Mrs. Rodolei for abortion, and that he, at the madame's request had dissected the body and declared himself willing to prove his surgical skill. The body of a young woman, whose years of life corresponded to those of the abortionist's victim, was procured and Masquiller ordered to dissect it. An ordinary kitchen knife had been placed on the table beside the body, that being the kind of an instrument used in cutting up Mrs. Beckman, and Masquiller was told to take it and proceed with his work. He advanced to the table, seized the knife and made an incision upon the subject. He began the work of convincing the spectators of the truth of his testimony. He worked silently and quickly for twenty minutes, at the expiration of which time the body was thoroughly and correctly dissected as it could have been by a practiced surgeon, and the jury and police declared themselves satisfied that Masquiller had told the truth.

Ministers Meet the Queen.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—The ministers met the queen in council at Osborne Monday. Lord Salisbury and nearly all the other members of the cabinet were present. The terms of the queen's speech on the opening of parliament were agreed upon.

Prohibited the Publication.

PARIS, Aug. 17.—Gen. Boulanger, minister of war, has prohibited the publication of his biography. The proposed pamphlet contains scandalous references to the connection between Gen. Boulanger and Mlle. Ruchberg.

Tornadoes in Russia.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—Central Russia, especially the Moscow district, has been devastated by tornadoes and waterspouts. Many buildings and bridges and whole crops have been destroyed.

Want the Currency Question Looked Into.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—Many members of the house of commons are signing a petition to the queen asking for the appointment of a royal commissioner to inquire into the currency question.

China Increasing Its Armament.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—The Chinese government is increasing its armament with all possible haste and has ordered 300,000 rifles from England to be delivered immediately.

CRIME MOST COWARDLY.

Villains at Atchison, Kan., Attempt to Blow Up a Residence.

ATCHISON, Kan., Aug. 17.—About a week ago J. W. Tufts, a lawyer of this city, was appointed assistant attorney general for the purpose of enforcing the prohibition law. He proceeded vigorously, and Saturday F. Dalke, a saloonkeeper, was fined $100 and costs. Ziebold & Hassel, brewers, and A. W. Fiedler, a bootmaker, were also enjoined, and the whisky element were greatly stirred up over it. At 1 o'clock Sunday morning an attempt was made to blow up Mr. Tufts' residence, which is a brick house, standing on the outskirts of the city. A twenty-five-pound can of powder was thrown from a part of the contents had been removed and large nails substituted. The persons who did the work attempted to get into the house, but failing in that they set the alarm machine on the back porch, lighted the fuse, and fled. The shock of the explosion was felt for blocks around, and many persons thought it was an earthquake. The floor upon which it sat, blew in all the doors and windows opening on the porch, and lifted a portion of the roof. The occupants of the house were Mr. Tufts and two children, and Mr. Hall, his father-in-law. Both men took revolvers at once and searched the grounds, but found no one. Governor Martin, who is here, will issue a proclamation offering a reward of $500 (the limit of the law) for the arrest of the criminals.

A STORY OF SUFFERING.

Attacked by Fever While Floating Down the River in a Boat.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 17.—The dead body of a woman and twelve persons suffering with fever, were found in the channels of the river in an old boat on the river Saturday. The sick were taken to a hospital. They proved to be the families of George and John Bu, farmers of Meade county, Ky., who had been on their way to their wretched farms in the hope of bettering their fortunes in the west and emigrating to the new age. Mrs. George Bush was stricken with typhoid malaria. One after another all of the people on the boat fell victims of the disease until none was left to man the boat, and it drifted helplessly on the river. Mrs. Bush died in a storm, in which all the property of the two families was washed from the boat and lost.

STRUNG UP BY A MOB.

A Man Who Poisoned His Wife Captured by Avengers and Hung.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 17.—News has been received here of the lynching of John Short on the Arkansas border, being near Tellico. Short was accused of having poisoned his wife. He was a resident of Searcy county, this state. He was shot on the border, and his body was found in a ditch. Some days ago he disappeared, leaving his house securely fastened. The door was broken in and the body of his wife found lying on the floor, with a bullet wound in her forehead. Several men started in pursuit of Short, intending to lynch him, and the reports received show that they carried the design into effect.

A Mystery at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—The body of a handsome young man, about 30 years old, was found floating in the lake at the foot of Thirty-fifth street at 5:30 o'clock Monday morning. She was about five feet five inches tall and had dark, wavy hair, blue eyes, and wore a brown alpaca dress, black stockings, and button shoes. Her hands were dressed in white gloves, and a cane stick held together a line collar at her throat. There was nothing on her person by which she could be identified. From appearance it was thought she had been in the lake but a short time. The remains were taken to the morgue.

New York Cigar-makers.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The strikers in twelve of the 138 shops of the Cigar Manufacturers' association resumed work Monday. There are about 500 of them. The bunch-makers will start in Tuesday, and the rollers on Wednesday. The two other firms still employ the Knights of Labor cigar-makers. The tobacco workers employed in the large chewing and smoking tobacco factories have formed a union, and applied for admission into the Central Labor union. They claim a membership of 6,000.

Congressman Scott's Coal Miners.

WASHINGTON, Pa., Aug. 17.—The men in Congressman Scott's district are gradually but surely giving in. It is thought, on account of the fact that the coal miners' union has disbanded the strikers. The pits at South Haven and Boyd's Hollow resumed Saturday under the conditions of the strike. The coal miners' union employed in the large chewing and smoking tobacco factories have formed a union, and applied for admission into the Central Labor union. They claim a membership of 6,000.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—The Times says: Lord Randolph Churchill's proposed Irish measure was dropped in some degree upon the attitude of the Irish. A statutory parliament will not be included in it.

Saratoga Races.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 17.—Monday's races here resulted: First race, purse $300, for beaten horses, 1 mile; Pat Sheedy first, Little Minnie second, Santa Anita Belle third; time, 1:54. Second race, purse $300, for maiden 2-year-olds, 1/2 mile; Romp first, Mahony second, Gladstone third; time, 1:04 1/2. Third race, purse $200, all ages, 1 mile and 300 yards; Rocky B. first, Ultimatum second, Orlando third; time, 2:15. Fourth race, selling, purse $350, 1 1/2 miles; Famosa first, Joe Mitchell second, Tony Famosa third; time, 1:45. Fifth race, stepplechase, purse $400, about 1 1/2 miles; Disturbance first, Myrtle second, Joe Shelby third; time, 2:35.

Savings Bank Insolvent.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—An application was made Monday morning in the Kings county supreme court by Mr. Whitaker, deputy attorney general, for the appointment of a receiver for the White Stone Savings bank, which he says has become insolvent. He thought the bank should be enjoined from doing any more business, and the superintendent should be directed to take possession of the bank. Judge Barrett took possession of the papers.

Don't Want Any Saloons.

VINCENNES, Ind., Aug. 17.—The village of Lawrenceville, just beyond the river, is greatly incensed at the action of its town board, which has issued licenses for two saloons at $1,000 each. The town has been used for the temperance sentiment, but recently its town board, composed of Prohibitionists, resigned, and liquor men were chosen in their stead. Threats are made that the saloon keepers will find rough sailing.

NOT IN FAVOR OF WAR.

BEN BUTTERWORTH INTERVIEWED ON THE CUTTING AFFAIR.

He Don't Like All This "Blowing" About Mexico—Gen. Pleasanton Also Talked with Excitement on the Frontier—Blasphemy Talk of Mexicans—The Ultimatum of the Way to Mexico.

WASHINGTON CITY, Aug. 17.—Congressman Butterworth was Saturday interviewed regarding the Cutting case, by a representative of a local paper. The congressman is reported to have said: "It would be a nice and brave thing for the United States, would it not, to pitch into weak Mexico and get an account of a man as Cutting. Everybody who knows Cutting—and he seems to have been a very picturesque and well known individual in many parts of the country—testified that he is a dead beat and a generally worthless character. Instead of being the kind of a man that we should worry about because he is imprisoned, it strikes me that he is one of those people the most welcome announcement concerning whom would be an invitation to attend his funeral. I do not like all this blowing about Mexico, simply because we could take that country up on our knees and sweep her. You will notice that we are not blowing any concerning England, while one of her colonies is daily committing outrages upon American citizens and causing them personal inconvenience, and also to suffer extensive pecuniary losses. We could not blowate toward France and Germany. We would not even blowate toward China. What a bullying and small spirit it therefore is for us to be blowing so extensively toward poor Mexico. I do not think that hostilities will grow out of the matter. We do not want a single one of those states, and any accession of territory belonging to her would cause us no end of trouble and trouble if we did not, before making that accession, wipe out completely its present population. Let us rather look out to ourselves. We have elements in our population which need the strong arm of legislation. We have plenty to do at home, without going abroad."

Gen. Pleasanton was seen by a correspondent of The Chicago Herald Sunday, and spoke very much as Mr. Butterworth, so far as Mexico was concerned, but expressed a desire for a war with England, saying our cause will be the fishery question. Upon being reminded of the weakness of our navy and coast defenses the general rather indignantly said: "We can get army enough at short notice to whip out any enemy. But I am no naval man, and do not think of our rotten navy and practically dismantled coast defenses. You have got me there. Of course, if we went to war we would be obliged to have ships somehow or other. Buy some, of course, if we could, and build if we could. Grant letters of marque to privateers and scour the seas. Try rpedoes and rams in the 19th or 20th century, and you will find without appropriating money for our coast defenses! Fifteen millions for rivers and harbors and nothing for fortifications! This is millions for tribute and not a cent for defense, reversing the ancient American shibboleth."

Thirsting for War.

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 17.—Consul Brigham has received certain mysterious official telegrams, which seem to be very important, but which he would not discuss. He seemed much excited at the moment of receiving them, but will say nothing. It is reported by El Paso del Norte that there are 200 men on their way to the report of travelers just returned. The Mexicans declare that the Mexican armies will eat their Christmas dinner in St. Louis.
